Title: Customer updates account information

Participating Actor: Customer

Actor — Clicks on 'update account'

Includes

Chooses a field to update with new information

Includes

Clicks on 'Save'

Includes

User information is saved in the database

Extends

Includes

Info is verified
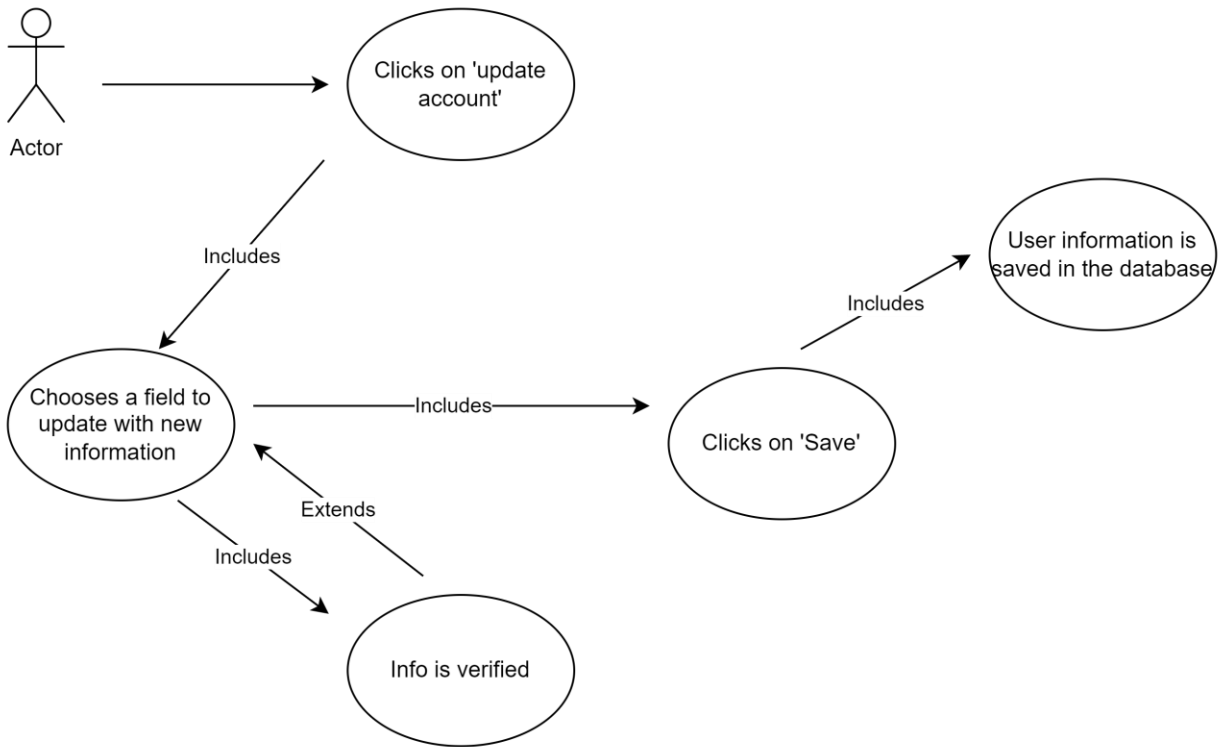

Entry conditions:

- Customer has an existing account
- Customer clicks 'update account information' on website homepage

Exit conditions:

- Customer successfully updates desired information

Event flow:

1. Customer logs in to account after clicking the button
2. One field at a time, user selects fields to update and provides current information
3. Input is validated (i.e. birthday is a real date, credit card number actually exists, etc)
4. User selects 'save' button
5. Updated information is saved to database